STOCKS AND INTERESTS.

Increasing Foreign Demand for Bonds.

London Largely a Buyer in Erie.

Stock that Pays 18 Per Cent Per Annum.

Hedging Against a Possible Decision in Arkansas.

NEW YORK, November 9.—The demand for bonds is increasing daily, and bids fair to grow into an important movement. Foreign houses are leading the movement. Several European syndicates lately sent representatives to this country to absorb the railway bonds when procured at a bargain. The bonds of the Erie railroad at Chicago have just been taken by an English house, and propositions were received for other investments.

GOULD is quoted as saying that Texas Pacific would be sold to 80 before Christmas. The Erie pool is said to have sold considerable stock lately. London was a large buyer Monday, and 70,000 shares are said to have been bought for foreign account since Friday. The success of the Gould party in the approaching election will immediately. Missouri Pacific and Western Union will probably be listed in the London Exchange.

END THE RAILROAD WAR

Rumors of a pool in St. Paul are current. Louisville and Nashville has advanced rates on through business. An advance is probable in Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. Large short interest has been created by people who sold stock against the purchase of rights. Insiders who sold out on prospect of trouble with the Union Pacific are buying back their stock. The Northwest company is said to be earning

EIGHTEEN PER CENT PER ANNUM, and an advance in Illinois Central is considered probable. Ten thousand shares of Robinson consolidated were bought by a pool Monday. Good demand is reported for Missouri, Kansas and Texas consolidated mortgage bonds.

It is reported that Mobile and Ohio debenture will soon be funded into 5 per cent bonds and the road restored to the stockholders. It is reported that the have protected themselves against the probable decision of the Arkansas Supreme Court, holding that these roads are liable for certain bonds by buying in most of the bonds issued on their roads. The advance in Buffalo, Pittsburg and Western is based on the contemplated alliance with the Buffalo, New York and Philadelphia roads.

English capitalists contemplate building a railroad from Columbus to the Ohio coal fields. The Wabash is taking advantage of the opportunity to advance rates at all points not touched by competing roads.

FLIPPER'S TRIAL.

Attempts by the Defense to Get up Sympathy.

GALVESTON, November 9.—In the Flipper case the cross-examination of Shafter occupied the court again yesterday. The questions for the defense pointed to an attempt to prove Shafter overzealous in the service of the government in stripping Flipper of all personal effects. In Shafter's replies he said the personal effects were taken at first, but were subsequently tendered back. The balance was retained until some small debts were settled and probably all had been offered but refused by Flipper, save through civil process. The effects have been subject to his order since that time. The defense offered to prove that the enlisted men were so enraged at his confinement that propositions were made to relieve Flipper by force. The Judge Advocate declined the offer as improper.

Suicide of a Railroad Man.

St. Louis, November 9.—It is reported from Kansas City that A. D. Van Horn, well known in railroad circles, died yesterday from the effects of a dose of morphine taken with suicidal intent. Van Horn came to Kansas City from New York, and was formerly agent of the Santa Fe road.

A New Jersey Election Murder.

New Brunswick, November 9.—James B. Montrose shot and killed William Tardone at Fieldville last night while quarreling over the result of the election. Montrose escaped.

Fatally Stabbed.

St. Louis, November 9.—A Houston, Texas, special says: Greer Thomas and Anthony McCartney, section hands on the Texas Western railway, quarreled, when McCartney fatally stabbed Thomas with a butcher knife and fled.

A Call for Missouri Bonds.

St. Louis, November 9.—It is announced from Jefferson City that a call has been issued by the funding committee for $250,000 of State renewal funding bonds, to be redeemed December 1st. The bonds called in were issued in July and December, 1875, and are numbered from 543 to 571 inclusive, and from 672 to 692 inclusive.

A Home Rule Circular to be Issued to the World.

Archbishop McCabe's House
Defaced.

Orangemen Outrages During October 490 in Ireland.

French Consul Fired on at Tripoli.

Sitting of the Land Commissioners in Limerick.

LONDON, November 9.—At the Home Rule meeting in Dublin yesterday D. Sullivan, brother of A. M. Sullivan, moved that the Home Rule manifesto be circulated throughout Europe, America and Australia. A detective watched those who entered the room to attend the meeting. A Dublin correspondent discussing the Home Rule meeting says: "A little knot of politicians who meet occasionally under the name of Home Rule League think they see a fine opportunity for emerging from insignificance into which they were cast by the Land League." Only thirty persons were present at the meeting at which the manifesto was promulgated. Several more suspected were arrested Tuesday. The Episcopal arms carved on the pillars of Archbishop McCabe's house in Dublin were broken owing to it, it is supposed, the Archbishop's recent pastoral. The agrarian outrages in Ireland during October, 490 as follows: Munster, 223; Connaught, 133; Leinster, 102; Ulster, 32. At the first sitting of the Land Commission in Limerick there was a large attendance, and about three hundred claims for reduction of rent were presented.

To-day is devoted to the Lord Mayor's show, and is a holiday. The Stock Exchange is closed and business suspended.

Advice from Tripoli announce that the French Consul there was recently fired at by a soldier, who was arrested.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 9.—Vassim Pasha has been appointed Governor General of Tripoli.

BERLIN, November 9.—Herr Kopper, of the Party of the People, was elected member of the Reichstag at Mannheim, and Herr Grelenberg and Reitinghauser, Socialists, at Nuremberg and Saling respectively. At Leinwand and Dortmund the progressists elected their candidates.

The new Lord Mayor went in solemn procession to the Guild Hall with the usual display, which drew immense crowds and with innovation.

In the procession with the object of honoring the American people, and which received great enthusiasm, the "Stars and Stripes" were carried in the procession preceded by a drum and fife band of the Fourth Battalion London Militia, playing the "Star Spangled Banner." After a short interval came a band from the training ship Warpite, playing "Yankee Doodle." The American flag was received with a general clapping of hands and hearty cheers. The same honor was not conspicuously rendered to any other feature of the procession, except when the coaches of the new and old Mayor passed by. There was a demonstration as the procession passed the office of the United States Cable Company. Four young ladies waved American flags from the windows as the banners of the free went by, and there was loud and continued applause.

FALLING IN OF A TENEMENT HOUSE.

A Number of Persons Buried in the Ruins.

NEW YORK, November 9.—Early this morning the three story tenement corner of South Fifth avenue and Girard street, fell in, burying the occupants in the ruins. The fire department went to nine o'clock, with the assistance of citizens, extracted five victims; two dead, the others seriously wounded. How many were in the building at the time of the accident, is not known. The removal of the debris is being pushed with all speed.

The Sprague Muddle.

PROVIDENCE, November 9.—In pursuance of a Supreme Court decree Trustee Chappel has advertised the Sprague Print Works, the Quinck Co. stock, and other portions of the trust property of the A. & W. Sprague Manufacturing Company, for sale by auction next month.

Coolness in the Air.

WASHINGTON, November 9.—For the lower Missouri valley fair weather and a stationary or lower temperature, with a northwest to southwest wind, becoming variable, and a stationary or slight rise in the barometer, followed by falling barometer by Thursday morning. For Tennessee and Ohio valley areas of rain followed by clearing and colder weather, with northerly to westerly winds and rising barometer.

THE ELECTIONS.

All Gains in Favor of the Democrats.

Meager Returns From Various States.

New Jersey.

NEW YORK, November 9.—The latest returns from New Jersey show the next Legislature to be: Senate—Republicans, 13; Democrats, 8. Democratic gain 3. House of Assembly—Republicans, 30; Democrats, 30. Democratic gain four.

TRENTON, November 9.—The result in New Jersey is as follows: Out of 3 Senators elected the Republicans elected 4 and the Democrats 4. The Senate will stand 12 Republicans and 9 Democrats; the House 30 Republicans and 30 Democrats, leaving the the Republicans a majority of 3 on a joint ballot.

NEWARK, November 9.—The latest returns give a reduced Republican majority. The Senate stands 13 Republicans, and 8 Democrats; Assembly, 23 Republicans, 30 Democrats, 1 anti-monopoly Republican, and 1 doubtful but claimed by the Republicans. The Democrats gain 3 Senators and the Republicans 1.

RICHMOND, November 9.—Returns from this section are of the same general tenor as last night, showing slight additional gains for Daniels, Democrat, for Governor, but still leaving the result in doubt. The Democrats, however, claim to have gained 5 new members of the Legislature, making a gain of 13, which gives them a majority of 4 on the joint ballot. The Headquarters are confident that their State ticket will be elected. It is estimated that Cameron's majority will be at least 15,000 to 20,000. As to the Legislature, they claim a good working majority on the joint ballot.

Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, November 9.—One hundred and ninety-one towns and cities, including Milwaukee, and embracing two-fifths of the State, with the interior Republican precincts to hear from, give a net Democratic gain of 8298. The Republican vote basis of the last gubernatorial election to overcome is 25,500. The Democratic State Central Committee claim a good show for carrying the State, and claim State Treasurer Falk positively. The Republican State Central Committee are positive of the entire State ticket by from two to five thousand. Private advices from prominent Republicans in the interior seem to assure the success of the Republican ticket. Returns come in slowly. The entire vote is not over sixty per cent of the usual vote, and the flooded condition of the central and northern part of the State is assigned as the reason. The prohibitionists have drawn twelve or fifteen thousand from the Republican vote.

New York.

ALBANY, November 9.—The Argus editors at noon to-day claim the election of the Democratic State by 2000 majority, though owing to Carr running ahead of the ticket he may be elected. They say the Senate is a tie and the Assembly is in doubt. The Evening Journal says the Senate is a tie and the Assembly two Republican majority. They claim the election of Carr by about 2000, and consider the remainder of the ticket except Husted probably elected. Republican Congressmen in the 23d and 27th Districts are elected.

CONFEDERATE BONDS.

Some Revelations by Col. Blanton
Duncan, of Texas.

Special to Little Rock Gazette.)
LITTLE ROCK, November 7.—A special from San Antonio to the Herald, says: In an interview with Colonel Blanton Duncan on the Confederate bond question, he says that when Gen. Lee surrendered, there was a large amount of money in the hands of disbursing agents, such as Captain Bullock, for the navy department, and others for the commissary, quartermaster, Ordnance, State Department, etc. This money was the product of cotton bought in the South, and the sale of bonds, and the money was placed in the hands of English parties, who agreed to hold it for a certain period and deposit it for the best interests of the Confederacy. How much there was Mr. Duncan was not informed at the time. He was in England, and was given a general outline of the plan, and was told that on account of his warm Confederate sympathies Sir Hy Houston was selected to the head of the trust, and while in the hands of the United States could not possibly reach the fund, but could do so if in the possession of a disbursing agent. From the source of his information, Colonel Duncan had no doubt that the transaction was effected as stated, and some banking house was deputed to lend out the fund and let it accumulate by interest. Jeff Davis is now in England, and Mr. Duncan says that upon suggestion the trustees intend to divide the remaining funds of the Confederacy among the creditors. Even though defeated in the courts, the financial obligations will be paid by the consent of all holders to the fullest extent possible under the circumstances. Mr. Duncan says as to the issues of all kinds, about eight hundred million dollars was the total of them. It is scarcely possible that one-third of them was then in existence.

Millington Mystery.

Information has been received of the death at Millington, Tenn., of E. C. Patterson, of that place, and Squire Spelman was sent for to hold an inquest as there were some circumstances surrounding his death which called for investigation. It has been learned that Patterson was in town when Cope's circus was here and got into a difficulty in a Main street saloon with Sam Brooks, also of Millington, who it is alleged, knocked him down and stamped upon his breast with his feet. Patterson is said to have been addicted to drink and Brooks is regarded as being a rather rapid young man.

The Nabobs of the Press.

Burlington Hawkeye.
"Editors are usually wealthy," the man with the sample case remarked. "Yes," I said, "they are familiar with all the slang and business phrases of the money market; they write about millions as ordinary men talk about dollars; they know how to pay the national debt; they build railroads; they organize mining and magnificent transportation companies with fabulous capital; they declare war without consulting the Rothschilds, and if all the banks in America were to fail tomorrow they wouldn't be a cent poorer than they are to-day. Yes, they are rich. They associate with the moneyed classes, they sit down to the table with kings, and sometimes, in happier, luckier moments, with aces. If you want to borrow money go to the editor, he will turn to his advertising columns and tell you where you can borrow it. If you have money to loan, rather than see you suffer he will borrow it of you himself. Rich? He knows the secrets of the moneyed rings; he divulges the plans and schemes of the heavy operators to the people; he roars himself louder than the bulls, and grows among the bears; his voice is heard in the temples of the money changers, asking for money; he warbles his little roundelay on the curbstone, in a melancholy key, when he doesn't get it. Oh, yes, editors are rich! When you want to spend all the money you have in this wide, wide world, go to your lawyer; when you want something done for nothing, hit you to your newspaper office. Then, when you want to send some man to Congress, send your lawyer, because you can get along with-out him." I paused, and a profound silence filled the air like a dream of peace. I looked around upon my audience. It was fast asleep.
